

CITY OF PINE LAWN MUNICIPAL DIVISION
ST. LOUIS COUNTY, MISSOURI

Web-site Greeting

Welcome to the City of Pine Lawn Municipal Division website. We hope that you will find this information to be useful. This website contains information regarding court procedures, the court calendar, trial procedures, defendant's rights, payment options and case information. The Pine Lawn Municipal Division has jurisdiction on all matters involving violations of the City of Pine Lawn ordinances. An ordinance violation is classified as a civil offenses not a criminal offense. Every person accused of an ordinance violation has certain legal rights and responsibilities. You may be represented by an attorney although the court does not appoint an attorney for you and the City of Pine Lawn is not responsible to pay your attorney fees and expenses. If you are found guilty in municipal court, the court typically imposes a monetary fine. You are expected to the pay the fine when you make your initial appearance in court. However, if you need more time, the court will grant you time to pay. Our goal as a municipal division is to ensure that the interest of justice is served while providing an environment that is fair and respectful to all parties.
